

PRESS RELEASE
Tunis Stock Exchange Launches Its New Website
“A Modern Digital Platform Serving Financial Information”

Tunis Stock Exchange announces the official launch of its new website (www.tunis-stockexchange.com), fully redesigned to deliver an enhanced user experience and easier access to financial information.

This new digital platform features a modern design, intuitive navigation, and enriched content tailored to investors, companies—particularly those making a Public Offering—media professionals, and the general public. It is part of Tunis Stock Exchange’s broader strategy of modernization and digital transformation.

The architecture and technology adopted will support future developments, including two dedicated sections currently under development: one for listed companies and another for academics and students.

Through this new platform, Tunis Stock Exchange reaffirms its commitment to transparency, innovation, and the development of the Tunisian financial market.
